It was used for years to turn out ax handles on a production basis and will be a fascinating addition to the exhibits at the museum. The machine is a handmade lathe which contains an axe handle pattern in steel. The lathe automatically turned a wooden replica of the steel pattern. The machine was run originally by power generated by a stream running through the Bolles barn. The museum will install an electric motor to power the rig. Mr. Bolles invented. other machines including a stump puller that is so large that it is doubtful that it could be taken into the Carriage Shed.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The program planned for the October 22nd meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club promises to be a very unique and interesting one with Mrs. Everett Case of New Bedford presenting "Art of the Early Stone Carver". Of relatively recent interest in Massachusetts, Mrs. Case's hobby of making "rubbings" has been a popular hobby in other areas for some time. It is, in fact, an ancient craft dating back to about 300 B.C.

Think Sno-Ball!

A SNO-BALL MEANT FOR DANCING

It tumbled and bounced and grew into the most beautiful sno-ball of all. That's the way one of the most beautiful dances this area has ever seen is shaping up, according to the chairman, Charles W. Ganzel, Jr. All white and shimmering, reflecting the gaiety of the holiday season, this semi-formal dance, to benefit the Regional Symphonic Band, will be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mattapoisett, Saturday evening, December 5th, from 9 P. M. to 1 A.M. Delicious refreshments are being planned by Ethel Sylvia. Sumptuous decorations are being arranged by Luice McCormack. Tickets already are available for this great introduction to the year's most exciting party-going season. In Mattapoisett contact Mrs. Harry Locke or Mrs. Donald Nahigyan; in Marion, Mrs. L. H. 1970 INTERNATIONAL BULB SELECTIONS

Flower lovers all over the world helped select the 1970 International Holland Bulb Selections. Nine tulips, a daffodil and a hyacinth were chosen by a jury of experts from Holland's bulb-growing industry, from a poll of visitors to Keufenhof, the world's largest bulb gardens.

Flowers chosen for special beauty this year include:

Triumph Tulip	"Thule"—red, edged yellow
Triumph Tulip	"Garden Party"—white, carmine edged
Triumph Tulip	"Prince Charles"—purple, violet
Darwin Hybrid Tulip	"Apeldoorn"—cherry red, yellow base
Single Late Tulip	"Mrs. John T. Scheepers"—pale yellow
Single Late Tulip	"Renown"—carmine-red, blue edged yellow base
Lily-flowered Tulip	"Mariette"—satin-rose
Parrot Tulip	"Orange Favourite"—orange, feathered green
Greigii Tulip	"Cape Cod"—bronze yellow, black with red base
Hyacinth	"Amsterdam"—salmon-pink
Narcissus	"Bridal Crown"—ivory white, orange center

Among those chosen, "Mrs. John T. Scheepers" (pictured here) a Single Late Tulip is not only one of the largest but is also one of the best of the pale yellow tulips. It has enormous flowers of elongated oval shape, borne on strong, erect, 34-inch stems.

All of the 1970 International Holland Bulb Selections are available in nurseries throughout the United States. Early purchase is recommended while all the 1970 selections are still available.

Bulbs should be planted as soon as purchased. For the North, planting time is usually from September through late November. In the more temperate sections of the country, it extends into late December.

Mrs. Robert Thackeray, and in Rochester, Mrs. A. Barton Cummins.

Chuck says the Sno-Ball people all over town are talking about this Sno-Ball -- a Sno-Ball meant for dancing.

"Why not organize a party of your friends," Chuck suggests, "and get your tickets early. They're limited, so don't be left out."

Meet The Music-Makers

Nancy and John Pandolfi

Even at the age of five, John Pandolfi was full of determination. That's when he told Nancy Pandolfi he would marry her when he grew up. That was back in Manville, Rhode Island -- and marry her he did in 1952 when John was in the Army, teaching (in true bureaucratic tradition) at the Naval School of Music in Washington, D. C.

To qualify for this position, John was graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music studying clarinet. At the young age of sixteen he was awarded two complete scholarships to Tanglewood playing under the demanding batons of Koussevitsky and another boy protege, Leonard Bernstein. One balmy day, John was hitchiking to Tanglewood with his clarinet and the next car to pick him up was driven by Lennie Bernstein, who remembered his fine performance with the symphony and must have been impressed for he remarked, "Someday, young man, I'll be hearing you with the Boston Symphony". Pretty heady stuff for a sixteen-year old!

John went on to Mardi Gras Town to become at 23 the youngest member of the New Orleans Symphony.

But John has not been a musician all his life. Waiting impatiently for an audition in Detroit, he earned a living baking pies in an Italian bakery. If John baked pastry with the same verve and determination with which he directs his musicians, then the world has been denied a great pie baker.

Upon his return from a concert tour of South America, our director was browsing through some sheet music in Boston when he met an old fraternity brother, a former music supervisor at Tabor Academy. The position was open there -- and John was appointed immediately.

While all this was going on, John's lovely wife was having babies quietly and efficiently in the background. Gary, now 17 and a a senior at Tabor, was born when John was in the Army. He is a talented writer who is also seriously interested in marine biology. Orlando, twelve, and a 7th grade student at Old Rochester, is a remarkable pianist who wants to emulate his father.

Nancy, with her remarkable serenity - so rare today, is the unifying force in this talented and diversified family, always ready with the right decision or the steady hand to balance a situation. She and John live in Marion in a charming Cape Codder that is overflowing with the sound of music. They love wood sculptures and cooking with liquor. At the end of this article is an ancient recipe from Italy called Portuguese Milk. This was given to Nancy's mother by her mother. Try it some rainy day. Delightful!

On one Sunday afternoon ride in Mattapoisett, Nancy Pandolfi spotted a FOR SALE sign on Route 6 and told John, "That's where our Symphony Shop will be!"

And in 1962, this energetic couple plunged into a new venture that has grown into a music nerve center for the area, supplying and nourishing the technical and emotional needs of musicians for miles around.

On November 20th, a Grand Opening for the new addition of pianos and organs is planned. Drop in to see John and Nancy with your good wishes.

John will be on the podium at Old Rochester Regional on November 1st, directing 42 musicians in an exciting program of popular and classical music. Come hear. Come enjoy. It has the Pandolfi touch.

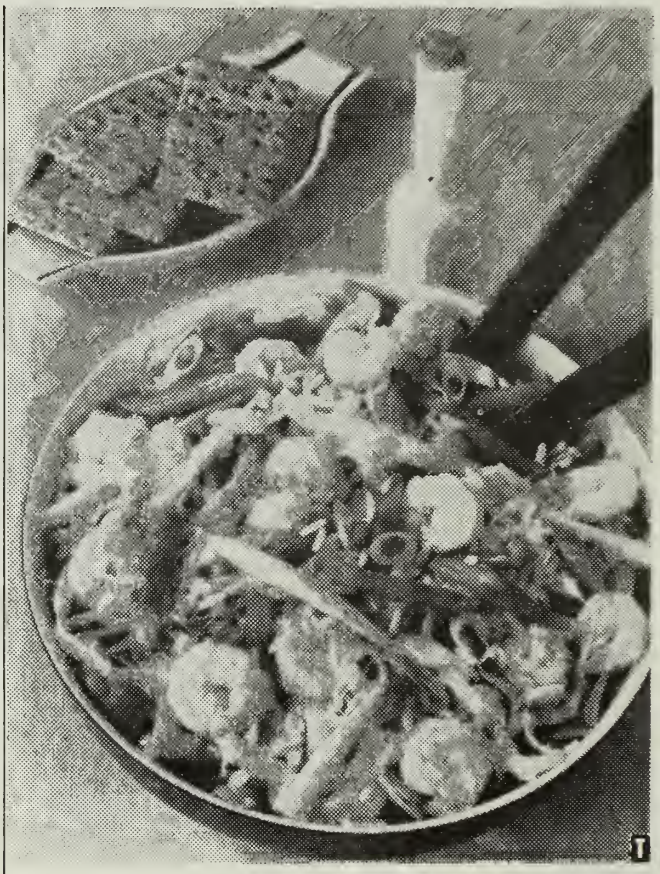
UNUSUAL SHRIMP SALAD IS A DIETER'S DREAM

It is not often one slim-down dish offers so much for so few calories, but it is all here—protein, vegetables, starch, great flavor, and servings so generous they can take a long, beautiful time to eat!

Shrimp and rice are at the heart of it. Shrimp, of course, are all lean and low-calorie (about 150 to the 4½-ounce can), but they contribute the high quality protein needed to hold back hunger between meals. In modest quantities, rice adds only its wallop of fuel and energy. As the saying goes, it is not the starch that fattens but what is spooned over it. And a trick way of cooking the rice gives the whole salad a very satisfying but deceptively rich flavor.

This is a pretty salad—all shrimp-pink and greens—with a slightly Oriental look, particularly when vegetables are cut on the slant. It serves four but for one person single servings may be spaced by adding rice and fresh ingredients to the shrimp mixture as needed.



WAIST WATCHER
SHRIMP SALAD

(4½ ounces) shrimp
1 can (1 pound) cut green beans
1 garlic clove, thinly sliced
1 tablespoon salad oil
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon sugar
¼ cup vinegar
2 chicken bouillon cubes
⅔ cup uncooked rice
1 cup sliced celery
½ cup sliced scallions or sweet onion
2 cups shredded crisp lettuce
Soy sauce (optional)

Have shrimp and beans chilled Drain both, reserving the bean liquid. Crush garlic in a large salad bowl. Add oil, mustard, sugar, vinegar, shrimp, and beans. Toss well; refrigerate. Heat bean liquid; add bouillon cubes and stir until dissolved. In a saucepan combine liquid with enough water to make 2 cups. Add rice. Bring to a boil and cook rapidly, uncovered, about 8 minutes or until rice stands above the water line. Reduce heat to lowest point; cover closely and steam 12-14 minutes. Spread rice in a shallow pan to cool, using a fork to separate the grains. Refrigerate 10 minutes or until needed. At serving time, add rice to shrimp and bean mixture; toss together with celery, onion, lettuce. Serve with soy sauce. 4 servings.

FAIRHAVEN 24 to 12 OVER OR

Fairhaven was warmed by their first win of the season as they chilled the Old Rochester Bulldogs for 24 points. Old Rochester scored on 2 "bombs" - spectacular long passes. The first was to Knapton who outraced the Fairhaven secondary to take the Reilly pass over the shoulder. Knapton steamed into the end zone with the score. Reilly threw from his own 11, so the play was good for 89 yards. The second pass play was on 4th down from the OR 46 late in the fourth quarter. Reilly dropped back and lofted a beauty, over the shoulder, to Richie Silvia on the Fairhaven 20. Silvia raced to the goal but lost his footing on the slippery turf and was down on the 3. This set up the second Bulldog score.

Other than that, it was Fairhaven's field and Fairhaven's game. The frigid dark clouds rolled in from the west chilling the OR fans to the bone and the action on the field did little to revive them. During the half a Fairhaven was run by a sophomore quarterback, David Almeida. Almeida looked good. The Blue Devils chose to kick off. OR was unable to move and forced to punt inside the 20. The punt, into the high wind, rolled dead on the OR 44. Fairhaven scored in 5 plays. Bob Pease ran 33 yards to score. The Blue Devils tried for 2 and the pass was knocked down. Fairhaven led 6 to 0.

Reilly then threw the long pass to Knapton at the opening of the second quarter to quickly put OR back in the game. The point was missed as Reilly passed long and the score was 6 to 6.

Fairhaven received on its 20 and marched 70 yards before OR stopped them. The Bulldogs took over. The Blue Devils poured through the line to drop Reilly in his end zone for a safety. It was 8 to 6.

After the free kick by Reilly Fairhaven was intercepted by Paul Soares and then OR lost the ball as Steve Koska intercepted for Fairhaven.

The driving snow started as the half ended. The snow stopped and the sky brightened as the second half began. Knapton's punt was blocked and Fairhaven took the ball on the OR 19. A pass from Almeida to Koska took the ball to the 4. Pease drove in from there. The try for the point was knocked down and it was Fairhaven 14 to 6. Fairhaven mounted another drive that was nipped by Richard Silvia's great diving interception on the 1-yard line. OR was unable to move. Reilly dropped back deep into his own end zone trying a long pass. He was dropped by Lindsey Gifford for Fairhaven's second safety of the day. It was 16 to 6.

In the final period, the Fairhaven team went 46 yards in a sustained march. Koska scored the TD. Almeida shook off 2 or tacklers and passed to Dupont in a crowd.

Mattapoisett Grange

Mattapoisett Grange held its annual Halloween observance last Thursday night during the lecturer's hour. After the lecturer's march, Mrs. Marjorie Smith opened the program with the story of the first Jack 'o Lantern. A grand march was held with those in costume taking part. Mrs. Olive Gifford won first prize, dressed as a cabaret girl, for the prettiest; Mrs. Gladys Pearson won a prize for the funniest in her Arab costume. Judges were Mrs. Roland Morris and Herbert LaFleur, who also served in that capacity for the whole program. Mark Harris had a contest of drawing faces on pumpkins. This was won by Mrs. Christine Day. The pumpkins were then presented to the judges. A

Rochester Historical Society

ANTIQUE SIGNPOST IN ROCHESTER

Have you noticed the freshly painted antique signpost in Rochester Center? This, together with the watering trough and old-fashioned pump, remind one of the Center Green as it must have looked 100 years ago. Credit for planning, erecting and painting the sign goes to Hoyle Demoranville, Donald Jenkins and the Rochester Historical Society with the permission of the Rochester Congregational Church.

Members of the Historical Society discussed this completed project along with several proposed ones at a recent meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jenkins. Members and their families are hoping to take a trip to Sturbridge Village or "Strawberry Banke" in Portsmouth, New Hampshire in the near future. Also under discussion was the possibility of having postcards printed depicting scenes in Rochester. Townspeople are encouraged to come forth with good Rochester photographs or suggestions for possible postcard scenes.

Mrs. James Gurney, president, announced that the Historical Society's booklets containing some history, anecdotes and photographs of Rochester are still available at Besse's Antique Store and Lloyd's Market. These have been enthusiastically received by area residents.

Police Defeat Firemen

PISTOL PACKERS WIN "BLOOPER BALL" EVENT

The "Pistol Packers" of the Mattapoisett Police Department proved to be more than the "Water Boys" of the Fire Department could contain as they lost the contest by a 3-run margin. The final score was 15 to 12.

A beautiful trophy, donated by Mr. Andy Gemaly, was presented to Alfred E. Faria, chief of police, by Miss Natalie Gemaly.

A donation of $10.00 from the Mattapoisett Sports and Athletic Committee, and a generous donation of $45.00 from Mr. Andy Gemaly, brought the total receipts of the game to $126.00 which was turned over to Chief Faria for the ambulance fund.

A hearty thank you to all who made this event a successful one, and a special thanks to the girls who served the coffee and goodies at the snack bar.

STUDENTS RECEIVE COMMENDATIONS

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1970 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) have been awarded to 3 students at Old Rochester Regional High School, Principal Frank P. Gifune, Jr. has announced.

Those named commended students are: Melynda Towsley, Robert Marso, Jr. and Christian Saether.

They are among 35,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1971. The Commended students rank just below the 14,750 Semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said: "Although Commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their standing in this nationwide program deserves public recognition. Their high performance on the NMSQT gives promise of continued success in college.

"The Commended students should be encouraged to pursue their education since their intellectual talent represents an important and much needed natural resource. Both these students and our nation will benefit from their continuing educational development."

The Commended students' names are re-

Theme of The Silent Majority

The following is taken from the Congressional Record of October 1, 1970 and was sent to us by Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak of 513 Point Road, Marion.

THEME SONG OF THE SILENT MAJORITY

Hon. James A. McClure of Idaho

Mr. McCLURE: Mr. Speaker, I am deeply indebted to a constituent of mine, Mr. Les Randall of Wallace, for sending me a copy of an address by Pat Michaels in Oakland, California last March. If ever I read a statement that captured the feelings of the people in my district, it is this one.

I AM SICK

And there are those who claim that ours is a "sick" society. That our country is sick, our government is sick, that we are sick.

Well, maybe they're right. I submit that maybe I am sick ... and maybe you are too.

I am sick of having policemen ridiculed and called "pigs" while cop-killers are hailed as some kind of folk hero.

I am sick of being told that religion is the opiate of the people ... but marijuana should be legalized.

I am sick of being told that pornography is the right of a free press ... but freedom of the press does not include being able to read a bible on school grounds.

I am sick of commentators and columnists canonizing anarchists, revolutionists and criminal rapists but condemning law enforcement if it brings such criminals to justice.

I am sick of paying more and more taxes to build schools while I see some faculty members encouraging students to tear them down.

I am sick of Supreme Court decisions which turn criminals loose on society -- while other decisions try to take the means of protecting my home and family away.

I am sick of being told policemen are mad dogs who should not have guns -- but that criminals who use guns to rob, maim and murder should be understood and helped back into society.

I am sick of being told it is wrong to use napalm to end a war overseas ... but if it's a bomb or molotov cocktail at home, I must understand the provocations.

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie unless I want them exposed to nudity, homosexuality and the glorification of narcotics.

I am sick of pot-smoking entertainers deluging me with their condemnation of my moral standards on late-night television.

I am sick of riots, marches, protests, demonstrations, confrontations, and the other mob temper tantrums of people intellectually incapable of working within the system.

I am sick of hearing the same phrases, the same slick slogans, the pat patots of people who must chant the same things like zombies because they haven't the capacity for verbalizing thought.

I am sick of reading so-called modern literature with its kinship to what I used to read on the walls of public toilets.

I am sick of those who say I owe them this or that because of the sins of my forefathers -- when I have looked down both ends of a gun barrel to defend their rights, their liberties and their families.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism. I am sick of politicians with no backbones.

I am sick of permissiveness.

I am sick of the dirty, the foul-mouthed, the unwashed.

I am sick of the decline in personal honesty, personal integrity and human sincerity.

And most of all, I am sick of being told I'm sick. And, I'm sick of being told my country is sick -- when we have the greatest nation man has ever brought forth on the face of the earth. And fully fifty percent of the people on the face of this earth would willingly trade places with the most deprived, the most underprivileged amongst us.

Yes, I may be sick. But, if I am only sick, I can get well. And, I can help my society get well. And, I can help my country get well.

Take note, you in high places. You will not find me under a placard. You will not see me take to the streets. You will not find me throwing a rock or a bomb. You will not find me ranting to wild-eyed mobs.

But you will find me at work within my community. You will find me expressing my anger and indignation in letters to your political office.

You will find me canceling my subscription to your periodical the next time it condones criminal acts or advertises filth.

You will find me speaking out in support of those people and those institutions which contribute to the elevation of society and not its destruction. You will find me contributing my time and my personal influence to helping churches, hospitals, charities and those other volunteer backbones of America which have shown the true spirit of this Country's determination to ease pain, eliminate hunger and generate brotherhood.

But, most of all, you'll find me at the polling place. There, you'll hear the thunder of the common man. There, you'll see us cast our vote ... for an America where people can walk the streets without fear .. for an America where our children will be educated and not indoctrinated .. for an America of brotherhood and understanding .. for an America no longer embarrassed to speak its motto "In God We Trust".

Some excellent color slides of the recent Whaler's Ball, taken by Manuel Roza and Winfield Jenney, were shown at the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum on Sunday night. Together with movies, taken by the Channel 6 photographer at the event, they were great entertainment for the audience many of whom had attended the ball and were in the pictures.

The slides captured the color of the many marvelous costumes, brought back in vivid clarity the fun of the actual event. Both photographers also had slides taken at the Art Festival held this Summer.

The Festival, which was so highly successful, was most enjoyable to see again. The variety and the quality of the exhibits spoke of the concentration of talented people in the area. The highly active group in the Historical Society mounted an exhibition of art that would have done much credit to a much larger community.

Miss Jessie Peacock's pictures of the clean-up day at the Museum were projected, followed by an imaginative sound commercial for the upcoming SNO-BALL which is to be held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on December 5th under the chairmanship of Charles Ganzel, Jr., to benefit the Regional Symphonic Band.

Congressman Keith and the Environment

During the past few years, the environment as a political issue has moved out of obscurity into sanctity; today it is a rare occurrence when a political figure does not express a public concern over the environment. Mr. Keith states that his efforts in the Congress have centered around environmental affairs and conservation. Yet it is interesting to note that the League of Conservation Voters, a non-partisan committee which evaluates the performance of Congress on critical environmental issues, has rated Mr. Keith the lowest among all of the twelve Massachusetts representatives.

As a leading conservationist, Mr. Keith saw fit to vote for further appropriations, now totaling nearly $1 billion, for the SST. Environmental scientists are concerned with the excessive noise of the SST's both during landings and take-offs and during supersonic flight; there is increasing evidence that these loud noises may have a serious effect on people's health. Dr. Russell Train, the head of Mr. Nixon's Environmental Council, has warned that the SST engine discharges will result in "both atmospheric pollution and ground contamination." Furthermore, a high-level environmental study group sponsored by MIT has recently recommended a curb on SST development in the fear that the SST's could change the world's climate by creating a permanent layer of smog in the upper reaches of the atmosphere.

Sewage represents an increasingly serious problem for all communities, both large and small; most sewage treatment facilities are either non-existent or inadequate. But Mr. Keith voted against HR 3610 in 1960, a Federal aid program designed to match state and local money to build sewage plants. The following year Mr. Keith voted to slash the annual authorization for sewage treatment grants to communities in the Water Pollution Control Act, HR 6441. In mid-August of 1970, Mr. Keith voted not to override the Presidential veto of independent agencies appropriation bill; as a result, the city of New Bedford lost $53 million for improved sewage treatment.

Other questionable actions by Mr. Keith include his vote for the deletion of Title II of the Clean Air Act, HR 306, which made provisions for research on solid waste disposal. The Indiana Dunes are stretch of beach and dunes along Lake Michigan that are seriously threatened by industrial encroachment. But Mr. Keith voted against HR 51 in 1966, which included a liberal definition of the boundaries of the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore. In 1969 with the Highway Programs Bill, HR 14741, Mr. Keith voted to delay the date for the imposition of penalties on states that fail to control junkyards and billboards along highways and to deny all of the funds requested for highway beautification.
